Description
Of course, because Privacy Browser doesn't collect any sort of metrics on which features are actually used, the "popularity" of a feature is determined by:
<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. How much I use it.2. How much I guess other people use it.3. Feedback I have received from users.

History

#1 - 03/21/2017 12:12 PM - Soren Stoutner

I have decided to leave all the domain settings at the top (including the options to clear stored data).

After that, the current order of:
