Description
This happens if `urlTextBox` is focused and the keyboard is displayed. If the focus is lost (by tapping in `mainWebView`) while the keyboard is open, `urlTextBox` is scrolled to the beginning per the code in Privacy Browser, but then scrolled afterward to the end or to a location loosely based on the cursor position. If the keyboard is closed when the focus is lost `urlTextBox` is scrolled to the beginning as desired.

Apparently it currently isn't possible. I will put this off for a bit and see if things change.

<https://redmine.stoutner.com/issues/341> moves to the beginning of the URL text box when focus is lost, which is an improvement.
