History

#1 - 02/04/2021 09:53 AM - Soren Stoutner

- Subject changed from Remover of tracking elements when copying a link from an address bar to Add additional items to the URL modification list
- Priority changed from 4.x to 3.x

Note that the copy command is controlled entirely by the OS, and Privacy Browser has no power to control what does.

However, Privacy Browser does have some control over tracking elements that exist in URL's (see URL modification at <https://www.stoutner.com/privacy-browser/common-settings/url-modification/>). If you have a specific recommendation I can add it to the URL modification list.
